ALLIED ARMY IN SHOWER OF FIRE

Germans Continue Supreme Effort to Win Through to Coast.

AIRMEN DROP BOMBS.

British Monitors Which Were Hit Sunday and Put to Sea Return and Throw Bombs at Enemy.

Paris Oct. 27—With a number of their heavy guns mounted to protect their front, and with hundreds of light pieces and rapid firers deluging the allied lines with sharpnel and bullets, the Germans continue today their supreme effort to win through to the coast from the northeast.

Inside of the Dixmude-Nieuport line the fighting continued without let-up last night the combatants operating in the glare of enormous searchlights that made the scene as light as day. The rival aviators flew over the trenches dropping bombs, while the monitors of the fleet, which withdrew to sea Sunday after three had been hit were back throwing shells from their long range guns.

In the territory lying southwest of Ypres and between Armentieres and Lille further desperate fighting was in progress. Here the British who are bearing the brunt of the struggle, are reported to be losing very heavily But they are also said to be slowly forcing the Germans back to the east and on their heavily intrenched positions at Lille.

The main purpose of the Germans officials at the headquarters of General Gollieni say, is apparent. They are now concentrating their efforts to break through to the coast on an almost direct line to Dunkirk and leaving along the coast the thin line of French and Belgians who are holding the coastal positions at frightful odds. By changing their front after their objective is obtained and making part of it again run to the north and south instead of to the east and west, the officials point out once the Germans attain either Calais or Dunkirk they would have a human protecting wall between them and the sea from the guns of the warships.

In part the Germans had succeeded in that maneuver on Sunday when the British warships were compelled to steam out to sea and quit firing to avoid hitting their own men. But later, when the Germans moved south from Nieuport and again appeared inside of three-mile limit along the coast, which marks the effectiveness of the sea firing, the warships reappeared. Today they are again in action.

All of the reports from the north say the fighting is constantly increasing in strength as the new bodies from each side get into action. Every hospital in Dunkirk and Calais is filled with wounded, and many private houses have been commandeered for hospital purposes. As fast as the hospital ships can steam they go backward and forward across the channel with their loads of victims. who are being cared for in England.

FARMERS DIG TRENCHES

New York, Oct. 27— Farmers in the vicinity of Harlow, in Essex county, England are preparing for possible German invasion by digging trenches, according to James S. Cowlin of Newark, N. J. who arrived yesterday here on the seamship Minnehaha.

"The digging of these trenches, which are located so as to be used in resisting the advance of a German army, indicates that British authorities do not consider that a German invasion is beyond the range of possibility," Mr. Cowlin said. "The work is being done by order of city and county officials, and it is generally understood that these officials issued these orders by direction of Lord Kitchener.

"My personal observations were made only in the vicinity of Harlow but I heard that farmers from other sections of Essex were similarly occupied"

NEWS OF THE DAY

Beside a truck in the garage of the Milwaukee Casket Company, Alma Leopold, seventeen years old, and Fred Oehler, her sweetheart, carried out what the police believe was a suicide pact early yesterday. Employes broke down the locked doors of the garage and found the girl's body, a bullet wound in her head, lying beside the truck. Sitting in the front seat of the truck they found Oehler, who was an employe of the company There was a shot wound on the right side of his head. A revolver and a bottle of poison lay at his feet.

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Rome gives the following received from Sarayevo, Bosnia, under date of Monday: "Gavrio Prinzip's the assassin, and Grabez a student; Nedeljo Gabrinovics, and 21 of Prinzip's accomplices were found guilty of treason Monday for the killing of Archduke Francis Ferdinand and his wife. As the court pronounced the verdict there could be distinctly heard the rumble of the artillery of the Servians who had fought desperately to capture the city and liberate the prisoners all of whom are Slavs."

Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman, who was on trial in Mineola, N. Y. all last week for the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey, was released on $25,000 bail by justice Charles H. Kelby, in the King's county supreme court in Brooklin yesterday afternoon. Accompanied by her attorneys she went immediately to her home in Freeport. Whether Mrs. Carman will be tried again on the charge of murdering Mrs. Louise Bailey, in view of the disagreement on Sunday of the jury in her first trial, is an unsettled question.

The first steps in an investigation to determine whether horse and mule meat is being sold in Louisville Ky. under the guise of beef were taken yesterday by the Jefferson county grand jury and the local board of health. The grand jury indicted one butcher on the technical charge of unlawfully selling a misbranded article. Affidavits have been placed before the board declaring that decrepit horses and mules have been slaughtered and widely sold over meat market counters in Louisville. At least one affidavit alleges carcasses of dogs have been dressed to resemble young pigs and sold.

Pauperism is decreasing in the United States, according to a census statement yesterday. The ratio of almshouse paupers to population has steadily declined at every census since 1880, the census bulletin declares.

A Swedish diplomat, who arrived in Paris yesterday after a tour of Germany, says the Germans have mined the principal buildings of Brussels, including the King's palace and the city hall, as well as the Central Boulevard Anspach, with the object of dynamiting the city if forced to evacuate it.

Announcement was made yesterday by Mr. McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury, that the new banking system will become operative throughout the United States November 16. On that date the twelve Federal reserve banks located by the organization committee in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, St. Louis, Richmond, San Francisco, Cleveland, Kansas City, Minneapolis, Atlanta and Dallas, will be established. At the same time the new reserve requirements for national banks as prescribed by law will become effective-thus releasing, according to Secretary McAdoo, more than $400,000,000 of reserve money and increasing the credit facilities of the banks of the United States by that amount.

The Japanese government has lodged a protest with the United States government against German warship Geier being allowed to stay any longer in the port of Honolulu. The Geier put into Honolulu for repairs which, the Japanese protest states, have already been made.

TAKE CALAIS AT ANY COST SAYS KAISER

Occupation of that Place and Dunkirk Regarded as Necessary.

ARE VITAL POINTS.

Ready to Sacrifice Men, War Material or Anything Else to Obtain Possesion of French Port.

London, Oct., 27—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Times wires that reports received there from German sources say that the Kaiser has issued the direct order that no matter what the cost, Calais is to be taken.

It is reported the Kaiser was in Begium on Sunday and listened personally to the reports of his officers. He is then reported to have stated that the occupancy of Calais and Dunkirk were necessarily vital points in the German strategical plan, but that this was especially so in the case of Calais.

Therefore the order was issued that, no matter how much war material or how many men were sacrificed the march to the channel must succeed.

DEATH OF REV. H. P. R. M'COY

Aged Presbyterian Minister Passes Away After Brief Illness.

Richmond, Oct 27—Rev. H. P. R. McCoy, a widly known Presbyterian minister died late Sunday night at his home near Cuckoo, in Louisa Co. He was in his eighty-fifth year and had been in failing health for some years.

Mr. McCoy was for many years pastor of a group of Presyterian churches in Louisa County.

Mr. McCoy would have been eighty five years of age on February 2. His ministry dated back to the period before the War Between the States when he was an ardent Southern sympathizer.

HORRORS OF WAR

Frightful German Losses During Last Weeks Engagement.

London, Oct., 27—The correspondents on the allies' lines in Belgium near the coast agree that the horrors of recent fighting there are the worst so far in the war.

A correspondent of the Standard, telegraphing from Calais, says that the losses in the German ranks have been frightful during the last week.

German officers who fall into the hands of the allies appear to be almost crazed with rage and mortification, but the men under them are tired out hungry and disheartened. Many of them are reservists of 50 years and more and others appear to boys under 18.

Belgian soldiers, the correspondent says, have borne their trials uncompainingly. One of them said that for a week their only food in the trenches had been sardines and biscuits, and not much of either. They have been hungry for days but lack of drinking water has been their chief torment. Some are said to have sucked their own blood to assuage thirst, which they say is worse than German shellfire.

Their chief complaint otherwise is lack of tobacco, and when they get any they have no time to smoke during the day, and at night it means a court martial to exhibit even a glimmer of light from a cigarette.

Cutting of the dikes at Dixmude the correspondent continues, flooded German trenches and caused the death of drowning or hundreds, perhaps thousands, of the enemy.

RECOVERY IS DOUBTFUL.

Copnhagen, Oct. 27.—Medical authorities state the recovery of Prince Oscar, the Kaiser's son, is doubtful. He is suffering from partial paraysis of the vagus nerve, the most widely distributed nerve of the brain.

His condition is said to have been brought about by shock. Turcos having killed all the officers of his staff.

PRESIDENT WILSON ENDORSES CARLIN

Chief Executive Wires State Chairman Ellyson

President Wilson today sent the following telegram to J. Taylor Ellyson, chairman of State democratic committee.

The White House
Washington, D. C.
October 27th, 1914.

J. Taylor Ellyson,
Chairman State Democratic Committee, Richmond, Va.

It is a real pleasure to speak for those who have stood by the cause of the people and manifested in very practical way their support of just, progressive legislation. Certainly, Mr. Carlin is one of these. His quality has been tested by his valuable service, especially in connection with anti-trust legislation. It would seem to me little more than justice to him that his constituents should return him to the house and thus express their approval of his service by which he will be able to give the country the benefit of his qualities, more and more effectively, from month to month.

(Signed) Woodrow Wilson.

ESCAPING NEGRO SHOT DEAD.

Lynchburg, Va., Oct. 27.—Lloyd Martin, colored, awaiting indictment for car robbery, was shot and killed at the city jail yesterday morning by Deputy Sergeant Durphey, as the negro was attempting to escape.

John Cousins, also colored, awaiting transfer to the reform school, escaped.

The negroes picked the lock of their cell with an instrument made from the handle of a tin cup. When Durphey went to the male corridor at 5 o'clock the negroes bolted for liberty and were escaping through the office window when Martin was killed.

John Scott, colored, who was shot Saturday night in a row over a drink of whisky died at the City Hospital Sunday night. George Wells, colored, lately from the State penitentiary, is in jail charged with the shooting.

SUBMARINES AS TRANSPORTS

BEULAH BINFORD A NURSE

Woman Who Gained Notoriety in Beattie Case on Way to Europe

Richmond, Va., Oc. 27—Beulah Binford, who gained notoriety as "The woman in the case" of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., who was electrocuted for killing his pretty young wife, has gone to Europe to lend her aid as an English army nurse, according to Stafford Wilning, a commercial traveler, who has arrived here from new York.

"I saw Miss Binford on the day she sailed from New York," saidWilning, "and I know she had packed her baggage and bought her ticket She told me she planned to volunteer her services as an English nurse. She paid her own way and all of her expenses."

Beulah Binford was only sixteen years old and a beautiful girl when young Beattie, the son of wealthy dry goods merchant shot his wife.

After the trial Beulah Binford disappeared. She was reported to have tried to act in moving pictures and on the stage, but her part in the Beattie case—the part of the siren who lures the husband from wife and baby—was such that no manager would give her a chance. Later the Binford girl was said to be earning a living as a typist. Her whereabouts have been unknown to the public, however, since the trial.

GERMANS FAIL IN OFFENSIVE

Russians Continue to Harrass Enemy, Inflicting Heavy Losses.

70-MILE BATTLE FIELD.

Czar's Troops Frequently Resort to Bayonet to Gain Ground—Capture Guns and Prisoners.

Petrograd, Oct., 27—It was officially announced today that several determined attempts on the part of the Germans and Austrians to resume the offensive have failed.

The Germans, it is stated are endeavoring to intrench under cover of their artilery, but the Russians continue to harass them, inflicting heavy losses.

The official statement says:

"The fighting in the vicinity of Petrokow, Rodom, and the vicinity has now developed a battle front extending more than seventy miles from Rawa, Nowemiasto, Bialobrzegi to the mouth of the river Ilzhanka.

"The fighting has been continuous since Saturday, with the Russians frequently resorting to the bayonet to gain ground. The heaviest losses have been inflicted on the enemy.

"The Russians have occupied Nemylowsky forest to the southeast of Rawa, capturing several guns and many prisoners. Fierce fighting continues in the forest between Raoom and Kosenice.

"The Russians are steadily advancing in the Galicia region near the Sambor, having captured twenty guns and many prisoners. The entire valley of the Sprynia river is strewn with the enemy's dead, which number at least 5,000. All of the German attempts to resume the offensive from East Prussia have failed.

"The Germans are reported to be greatly disappointed and exasperated over their failure to capture Warsaw, which they had believed already within their grasp. Their retreat commenced last Tuesday, when the Russians turned their right flank with a bayonet charge participated in by nearly an entire army corps.

"At Rawa there was much street and hand to hand fighting, the Germans being driven out and forced to abandon several of their machine guns and all of their dead. Outside of Lovitch the Russians buried 1,300 dead at one point alone.

"The Germans are now desperately endeavoring to rally their stricken forces under cover of their artillery, and to stem the Russian on-rush, which is continuing.

Attacked by a negro while walking on Slingluff avenue, near North avenue, Baltimore, Mrs. Henry T. Sharp, wife of the rector of the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church, Walbrook, had a startling experience Friday night. The negro seized her by the arm and jerked a pocketbook from her hand, making his escape through an alley. The pocketbook contained a small sum of money and some papers.

Mrs. Sharp, in company with her daughter Evelyn, aged 10 years, left her home at 2815 Walbrook avenue to visit a florist's on North avenue. They were walking near an arc lamp when the attack was made.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Interesting News Notes About People of Alexandria—Happenings in Society.

The reception given last evening by Mrs. Marshall MacDonald to the delegates to the D. A. R. State conference and their hostesses, members of the Mt. Vernon Chapter of the D. A. R., was the opening function of the conference. The reception was held at Lee Camp Hall instead of Mrs. MacDonald's residence, and Mrs. Lorenzo Lewis acted as hostess for Mrs. MacDonald on account of the death of a near relative of Mrs. MacDonald's.

Receiving with Mrs. Lewis were Mrs. William J. Morton, regent of the Mt. Vernon Chapter, Mrs. Maupin, state regent, and Mrs. William A. Smoot, vice regent. Others assisting were Mrs. William B. Smoot, Miss Stribling, and Miss Ashby, officers of the Mt. Vernon Chapter, with Mrs. William Wattles, Mrs. William Smoot, and Mrs. Alexander Robertson, of Staunton.

In the dining room were Mrs. Hugh McGuire, Mrs. Taylor Burke, Mrs. Clarence Leadbeater, and Mrs. Fred Hatchell, of Washington, assisted by Miss Esther Burke, Miss Alice Anderton, and Miss Emily McCormick.

The table in the dining room was most appropriate in its decoration. The candles shedding their glow through the crimson tulle shades on groups of miniature American flags and the massive silver with which the table was laid made a most pleasing picture. In the center, a tall silver urn with a silver salver as its base, was filled with crimson and white dahlias. The drawing rooms were decorated with cut flowers and the hall was a scene of one of the most enjoyable receptions ever held within its walls.

The enthusiasm of the conference could be felt among the moving guests and the opening affair gave promise of a most pleasant union of the Virginia Daughters.

Mr. Charles Kramer has returned home after a three weeks' visit a short distance outside of Washington.

Delegates to the Grand Chapter of Virginia and the Grand Commandery, from Mt. Vernon Chapter, Royal Arch Masons, and Old Dominion Commandery No. 11, Knights Templar, left this morning for Richmond. The grand chapter meets tonight, and the Grand Commandery Thursday.

Mrs. Cornelius Lynch and Miss Edna McKenny, left this morning for El Paso, Texas, where they will spend some time at the home of relatives. They will also visit the Panama Exposition.

AFTER PUTTYBLOWERS.

Juveniles Armed With Instruments of Annoyance and Danger.

Puttyblowers are old contrivances, but in their original make they were more of an annoyance than one of danger. They have, however, been improved upon, and the puttyblower of today is really a beanshooter, and in the hands of thoughtless children are liable to cause damage by destroying the sight.

Dealers in these toys give a bag of small beans with each blower sold, and these are shot by boys at dogs, cats and their comrades. On one or two occasions their targets have narrowly escaped being struck in the eyes. The police are on a crusade against these juveniles arms and are destroying all they capture. Merchants dealing in the blowers have been notified to cease selling them.

DAUGHTERS MEET TODAY

Fifty Delegates, Representing Chapter of The State Are in Attendance.

The eighteenth annual conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution, was called to order this morning at 11 o'clock by Mrs. J. F. Maupin, state regent, with 50 delegates representing the various chapters of the state present. The Rev. William J. Morton, rector of Christ Church, delivered the invocation. Mrs. William J. Morton, regent of Mount Vernon Chapter, this city, delivered the address of welcome, and the response was made by Mrs. Robert Pierce, regent of the Stuart Chapter. Mrs. Maupin, state regent, delivered her annual address and the report of the officers followed. At one o'clock adjournment was taken for luncheon which was served in the Westminister Building. This afternoon the delegates visited the Carlyle House and Alexandria-Washington Lodge room. Mrs. William B. Smoot will entertain the visitors with a reception at her home tonight.

Mrs. Morton, in her address of welcome gave a most interesting sketch of colonial Alexandria. It was a revelation to some residents of Alexandria to find that there was even a greater wealth of historical association around the city than they had realized. Mrs. Morton noted especially the Carlyle House built in 1755, where General Braddock was entertained prior to his starting on his disastrous campaign against Fort DuQuesne and where Washington received his commission in the colonial army. Here, Mrs. Morton, said, was also held the council of Royal Governors, Dinwiddie, of Virginia, Shirley, of Massachusetts, DeLancey, of New York, Morris of Pennsylvania, and Sharp, of Maryland. This conference resulted in the call of the convention for the framing of the Constitution of the United States.

The historical associations of the old city hall were also discussed by Mrs. Morton. Here was held the first celebration of the adoption of the federal constitution and from its steps Washington made his farewell address to the citizens of Alexandria when he went to New York to be inaugurated president. Lafayette was a frequent visitor to the old tavern and it was here that he met John Paul Jones. Among the historical social events which took place in the city hall was the first Washington birthday night ball.

Mrs. Morton told of the history of Christ Church and other points of interest about Alexandria.

At this morning's meeting a letter was read from Mrs. Story, president general of the Society.

Tomorrow's session will commence at 10:30 o'clock when the meeting will be called to order by the state regent. Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, president of the National Council of Women, will deliver an address on the "World's Viewpoint of Women." The delegates will be guests of Mrs. William A. Smoot, at luncheon, which will be served at Mt. Vernon, tomorrow at one o'clock. The election of officers will take place tomorrow afternoon.

A very beautiful reception was tendered the delegates at Lee Camp Hall last night by Mrs. Marshall MacDonald. On account of the death of Major Angus MacDonald, Mrs. Lorenzo Lewis was hostess for Mrs. MacDonald.

It will be colder tonight and tomorrow the weather bureau forecast declared today. A sudden cold wave with freezing temperatures is general over the entire East—the northern half—from the Rocky mountains on to the Atlantic. Light snow falls were reported today from New York and New England.

Continued cold weather, with heavy frost, tonight and tomorrow and no break in the cold wave before Thursday was the forecast today.

Sudden departure off the Florida coast of a storm, creating a big vacuum which let northern blast spread over the Northern States is the scientific cause of the cold wave, Prof. Frankenfield, of the Weather Bureau, stated today.

Killing frosts in the interior as far south as Ohio were reported today Tonight the heavy frost belt will extend to Tennessee, North Carolina, and northern Georgia, with light frost probably farther south even to nothern Florida.

CASE OF C. JONES RIXEY

Former Bank President Will Test Balidity of Virginia Law Before Supreme Court.

Alexandrians are very greatly interested in the outcome of the suit of C. Jones Rixey, former president of the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation, which will be argued before the Supreme Court of the United States in Washington the latter part of this week. Mr. Rixey is now an inmate of the Western Asylum for the Insane at Staunton, Va., where he was sent following the failure of the institution which he directed. A number of criminal indictments charging him with larceny of about $500,000 of the bank's funds are pending in the Corporation Court of this city.

Shortly after being placed in Staunton an order was entered directing his removal to the hospital for the Criminal Insane at Marion, Va., but a stay was secured by his attorneys and the question comes before the Supreme Court on the question of the constitutionality of the Virginia law which orders the confinement of persons to a hospital for the criminal insane previous to their conviction. Mr. Rixey has never been convicted of the charges for which he is indicted.

Mr. Rixey will be represented before the Supreme Court by Attorneys James R. Caton, of Alexandria, John J. Jeffries, of Norfolk, and John S. Barbour, of Fairfax.

The State of Virginia will be represented by Hon. John Garland Pollard, attorney general.

By direction of Judge Louis C. Barley, of the Corporation Court, Clerk Nevell S. Greenaway asked for a statement of Mr. Rixey's condition from the hospital authorities several days ago and has received the following reply: "Your letter received in regard to the mental and physical condition of Mr. C. J. Rixey. His physical health has improved and he is somewhat better mentally. He works on the farm every day and looks after our stock. He fed and took care of 22 calves last winter." The letter was signed by Dr. J. S. DeJarnette, superintendent.

CONFESSED ROBBERY

Three Men Rob Car in Potomac Railroad Yards Last Night.

Charles E. Stuart, Charles Whitcomb, and a Russian, whose name could not be obtained, arrived in this city last night from Richmond on a freight train. They later proceeded to the Potomac Railroad Yards, where they broke open a car and carried away several boxes of cigars. Whitcomb and the Russian made their escape, but Stuart was captured at an early hour this morning by Officer Roberts. He had three boxes of cigars in his possession when taken in custody.

Upon reaching the station house Stuart confessed to Special Railroad Agent R. S. Reynolds that he was one of the trio who broke open the car. About three hundred of the stolen cigars were recovered from Stuart. He was turned over to the authorities of Alexandria county.

VICTORY FOR

[illegible] majority than he has sometimes had. They are against him Joseph L. Crupper, Republican; James E. Johnston, Prohibitionist, and the Socialist, Milton Fling. The Socialist vote is not figured as a factor in the fight, and the Republican vote is not big enough to be threatening. At one time, a few weeks ago, it was said the Prohibitionists would muster a surprising show of strength against Mr. Carlin because of his vote against Statewide prohibition. In the last few weeks, however, it seems he has done away with much of this opposition.

One of the "dry" men in his district described the situation as follows:

"The mass of voters in the country districts are inclined to take the attitude that Mr. Carlin, being one of the most brilliant and most high-minded men in Congress, had a right to vote on the liquor question as he saw fit. And they are opposed to a fight on him merely because of this vote when they remember the big work he has done in the House during the past session. I am inclined to believe that when the votes are counted on the night of election day it will be found that Mr. Carlin's majority will have been cut down much less than was estimated two weeks ago."

As a matter of fact, Mr. Carlin has been better advertised and set more in the public eye during the last two years than has been the case before. He has gathered tremendous strength and a great following because of his untiring and distinguished work on the judiciary committee. He has been recognized as the President's first aid and chief lieutenant in trust legislation, and, when Mr. Clayton retired from Congress to take a judgeship it was upon Mr. Carlin that the task fell of impressing on the committee and on the House the wishes and objects of the President in shaping legislation affecting business interests of the country.

This, in conjunction with untiring efforts on behalf of his constituents, has made him known as one of the busiest men in Congress. Because of this situation he has not had time to make campaign speeches and visits generally necessary in such a fight. But, acording to reports from his district, neglect of his political interests has redounded to his credit, and, to all intents and purposes, has made him stronger than before."

AFTERMATH OF THE WAR.

While the present war is horrible to contemplate, conditions which are liable to exist after it shall have burned out are causing speculations among thinking people. Countries which will afford fields for the rise of anarchy and violence may be looked for.

An impetus to socialism and a worldwide spread of the revolution spirit will be the result of the European war in the opinion of U. S. Immigration Commissioner Fred Howe.

"Europe has already taken trememdous strides toward socialization." said Howe yesterday. "In every country involved in the war the government has taken control of transportation, telegraph and telephone facilities, and is exercising a direct control over business and food supplies.

"Because war exists nobody seems to regard this as remarkable or realizes its extreme significance. Its effect, however, will be felt long after the war has ceased."

That the United States will be profoundly affected by this change in European social conditions is the opinion of Howe.

"The close of the war," he said, "will turn loose an enormous army of men made restless an discontented by their divorce from farms and mills. Their experience on the battlefield will have vitally changed their character and upset their old habits of life and thought. A large number of these men will come to this country and are bound to exercise a very marked infuence upon us."

One effect of the war on immigration, according to Howe, will be a very large increase in the number of [illegible]en immigrants.

"The war will leave a vast number [illegible]omen in destitude circumstances," [illegible]aid. "Many of these will be [illegible]ght here by their relatives and [illegible]ds in this country. Others will be wanted at home because of difficulty of providing for them, will sent here by their men[illegible].

[illegible]GHTERS OF THE [illegible]RICAN REVOLUTION.

[illegible]m time immemorial organizations have been formed in all countries of descendants of the great and [illegible]. Many instances from history could be quoted where appreciative posterity has joined in perpetuating the memories of those who played important parts in history. While for years songs describing the siege of Troy and deeds of valor by the Greeks were handed down from mouth to mouth, it remained for the immortal Homer to place them in metre.

The descendants of Confucius are legions, while the offspring of Mahomet have become equally numerous during the centuries which have followed the earthly careers of these personages. As time goes on the progeny of the heroes of the revolutionary war will grow into an immense army.

While the Daughters of the Confederacy, a justly honored organization in our Southern country, keep alive the memories of a cause equally as sacred as that of the fathers of the republic, those which they keep green did not succeed not from any fault of those who fought for them. The principles, however, for which the Southern soldier contended are still held by many in all sections of the country, although the fate of war was against them.

Not so with the Daughters of the American Revolution. The cause for which their progenitors bared their bosoms was the privilege of living upon the earth as free beings, a right which they possesed the power to demand and obtain.

The Daughters of the American Revolution are gathered in Alexandria today. They are in a city proud of interesting landmarks which figured in the history of the great American Revolution. They are holding their sessions virtually in the Braddock House, around which so many memories of colonial and revolutionary days cluster.

The Daughters are close to Mt. Vernon, the home of the father of our country, and Arlington, the home of another great Virginian.

The people of Alexandria tender them a cordial welcome, and they will do everything possible to make their visit to our city one long to be remembered.

Nearly 7,000,000 people in Belgium face famine unless they receive help from the outside at once.

Chicago was visited by the first snowfall of the season yesterday afternoon. The storm was preceded by a sharp drop in temperature. A heavy fall of snow visited Milwaukee and other Wisconsin points yesterday.

Northern Michigan was visited by the first snowstorm of the year yesterday morning, the temperature dropping from 70 to 30 degrees in less than twelve hours. The first snow of the season fell in Northern New York yesterday.

The British government has ordered the release of the American oil steamer Brindilla. The vessel will be permitted to proceed to Alexandria.

It is learned from a semi-official source that Count Helmuth von Moltke, chief of the German general staff, is at death's door. He has been seriously ill for a fortnight, General von Falkenhayne is acting chief of the general staff.

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value Mrs. O. E. PROBABLE DURATION OF WAR

Lord Beresford Predicts Long Fight in His Speech Last Night

Stafford, England, via London, Oct 27—The serious time of the war, said Lord Charles Beresford in a speech here last night, would begin when the Germans were forced over the frontier and were in their own country, and with their own base of supplies.

This was not going to be a short war, Lord Charles added.

It would take more than six months or a year to put Emperor William on his back, he said.

Nobody knew what woud happen in the next great naval battle in which modern instruments of warfare were used, Lord Charles continued.

He said the elements of luck would come into play; but luck or no luck, Germany must be humbled and humiliated.

"She must lose whole of her fleet," Lord Charles concluded," She must give up the Kiel canal and her colonies; her forts must be demoished, and the Krupp works razed to the ground."

Washington, Oct 27—That the Euro pean war will be waged for at least eighteen months, and that all Europe expects the conflict will not be terminated until three years have elapsed, was the statement made last night by Jerome K. Jerome, English author and playwriter who arrived in Washington yesterday from London.

"Though I know the whole American nation as well as all the world is looking hopefully for the first glimmer of peace," said Mr. Jerome, "I cannot but repeat the prediction of military experts that the duration of this war will be eighteen months at the minimum and three years at the maximum.

"The conflict has resolved itself into one of resources—of men and money, and men will be most important, for it has been shown that nations do, in some mysterious way, procure money with which to wage war."

ASK WATER RATE HEARING

Complaint Made by Citizens of Portsmouth

Portsmouth, Va., Oct. 27—The city of Portsmouth, through its Council, is preparing to ask the State Corporation Commission for a hearing on the subject of rates charged by the Portsmouth Berkley and Suffolk Water Company, supplying this city. There have been numerous complaints of late regarding charges by the water company, which are not in accordance with the contract schedule, it is asserted. In a meeting of the Water Committee of the Council, City Attorney Happer recommended appeal to the State Corporation Commission, as did Mayor Hope. It is probably that the city attorney will file a petition with the commission within the next few days. About fifty citizens with grievances attended the committee meeting.

MARITZ, DEFEATED, FLEES.

Rebel Leader in South Africa is Wounded in Fight at Kakamas

Cape Town, via London, Oct. 27.—It is officially announced that the rebel Lieutenant-Colonel Maritz and his forces have been completely defeated at Kakamas, in the Gordonia district of Beuchuanaland, by Union of South Africa troops.

Lieutenant-Colonol Maritz was wounded in the engagement and fled to German territory, according to the statement.

UPRISING OF CATHOLICS

Resent Attitude of Constitutionalist Troops in Mexico.

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 27.—Uprisings in Central Mexico of Catholic sympathizers in arms against the Constitutionalist program were told of here yesterday by Americans and Mexicans arriving from Guadalajara. Acording to the reports anti-Catholic proceedings of Constitutionalist troops have provoked a widespread movement against the present government.

Carranza soldiers at Union de Tula, Jalisco, were attacked by the populace, it was said, after the troops had entered the cathedral and confiscated the church property. The trouble has spread to a number of towns near Guadalajara. Priests are said to have directed some of the uprisings. Effort is being made to gain the adherence of the cientifico element.

CORNS QUIT, PAINS

STOP, WITH "GETS-IT."
Quit Plasters, Salves and What-Not

After using "Gets-It" once you will never again have occasion for asking, "What can I do to get rid of my corns," "Gets-It" is the first sure, certain corn ender ever known.

If you have tried other things by the score and will now try "GETS-IT" you will realize this glorious fact.

You probably are tired stickling on tape that won't stay stuck, plasters that shift themselves right onto your corn, contraptions that make a bundle of your toe and press right down on the corn. Put two drops of "GETS_IT" on that corn in two seconds. The corn is then doomed as sure as night follows day. The corn shrivels. There's no pain, no fuss. If you think this sounds too good to be true try it tonight on any corn, callus, wart or bunion.

"GETS-IT is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago

How to Fight Tuberculosis

In a paper read last year before the Bexar County Medical Society and published in part in the Louisville "Medical Progress," Dr. J. W. Carhart, of San Antonio, Texas, a physician who has devoted much time to the study of tuberculosis, said: "Since lime salts constitute three-fourths of all the mineral substances of the human body, they must be supplied in the foods or supplemented in mineral preparations, or natural starvation ensues with tuberculosis unchecked. The widespread and unchecked spread of tuberculosis and other preventable diseases is due largely to the decalcified (lime lacking) conditions of multitudes throughout the civilized world."

Thus from another authoritative medical source comes justification for the use of lime in the treatment of tuberculosis.

Since this is one of the ingredients of Eckman's Alterative, much of the success attending the widespread use of this remedy doubtless is due to the combination of this salt in such a way as to render it easily assimilable. It causes no stomach disturbance, and since it contains neither opiates, narcotics nor habit-forming drugs, it is safe to try.

Eckman's Alterative has effected remarkable results in numerous cases of pulmonary tuberculosis (consumption) and allied chronic affections of the throat and bronchial passages. In many instances such conditions, apparently, have yielded completely to it.

In case your druggist is out of it, ask him to order, or send direct to us.

NEGRO KILLS NEGRO.

Two North Carolina Men in Fight at Tye River

Amherst, Va., Oct. 27.—Thursday night about 12 o'clock, at Tye River, on the Amherst side of the bridge, Davis Williams shot and instantly killed Frank Lee. Both parties were North Carolina negroes and had been employed on the double track work of the Southern Railway. Williams immediately gave himself up to Mr. J. L. Hudson, special constable, and was brought to Amherst, and lodged in jail. He claims to have shot in self-defense.

Against Extra Session.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 27.—That President Wilson is not now thinking of calling an extra session of Congress in November, or after March 4th was his statement yesterday.

He declared that shortly after election he will call into conference some leading senators and map out the legislative program of the winter session.

His belief is that it will take until February to dispose of appropriation bills. Then bills already passed by one house, or demanding early attention by reason of their importance will be considered, in the order of their importance.
